BEFORE THE APPEALS BOARD FOR THE KANSAS DIVISION OF WORKERS COMPENSATION

BRENDA J. STAFFORD Claimant
VS.) Docket No. 198,793
JOHNSON'S GENERAL STORE Respondent
AND
FARMLAND INSURANCE COMPANY Insurance Carrier

ORDER

Respondent appeals from an Order granting preliminary benefits rendered by Administrative Law Judge Nelsonna Potts Barnes on April 7, 1995.

ISSUES

Respondent asks for review of the finding that the injury arose out of and in the course of employment.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

After reviewing the record and considering the arguments of the parties, the Appeals Board finds and concludes as follows:

- (1) The Appeals Board has jurisdiction to review a finding that an injury arose out of and in the course of employment on an appeal from a Preliminary Hearing Order. K.S.A. 44-534a.
- (2) The Appeals Board finds the claimant has not met her burden of proving that the injury arose out of and in the course of her employment and concludes the Order of the Administrative Law Judge should be reversed. Claimant testified that she injured her knee when she jumped down from a counter on which she was standing to dust a television set. The evidence presented by respondent raises substantial doubt about the claimant's testimony. One witness testified that claimant had told her she injured her knee in the backyard of her home. Another testified claimant's daughter told her claimant had injured her knee when she tripped over a rut in the yard at home. Two witnesses testified that claimant walked normally until claimant knew she was being observed. Claimant then began limping. Claimant herself gave inconsistent descriptions of the accident, claiming at times that she slipped off a crate at work. From the review of the record as a whole, the Appeals Board finds that claimant's description of the events lacks sufficient credibility to meet her burden.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

WHEREFORE, the Appeals Board finds that the Order of Administrative Law Judge Nelsonna Potts Barnes dated April 7, 1995 should be, and the same is hereby, reversed.

Dated this	day of July 1995.
